- Interact with other leadership teachers
- Become a better teacher
- Receive valuable resource materials
- Experience hands-on Leadership ideas
- Improve your critical thinking and leadership skills

Teaching a leadership class is far from the traditional classroom experience. Every activity you teach should have a leadership lesson.

Join other Leadership Class teachers from Missouri to learn hands on activities, skills, and curriculum ideas.

The Missouri Association of Student Councils (MASC) offers leadership teachers the opportunity to discuss current teaching trends and issues with other Missouri teachers. This workshop will analyze teaching concepts and put them immediately into a leadership lesson. This dynamic program will feature creative decision-making simulations that will challenge you to solve problems and help your students lead their peers. This is an energy-filled environment far from any normal classroom experiences.

MASC will host a training session for advisors at their annual Advisors Conference October 10. If you are a new or veteran leadership teachers, this Workshop will invigorate you to have a successful year.

Experience a day of hands on training with teachers who work with student leaders on a daily basis. Learn how to motivate yourself and your students. Help students realize their potential and the importance of being a leader.

WE'VE GOT LEADERSHIP—DO YOU?

HELPING TEACHERS BECOME BETTER LEADERSHIP TEACHERS

MASC believes that leaders are made, not born. This Leadership Conference gives Junior and Senior High Leadership Teachers the tools to step into their roles as leadership teachers in their classrooms and communities.

This conference will help each teacher realize the opportunity to help their students learn, grow and develop themselves into leaders.
