

2012 NASC Conference Hotel Information

The three official 2012 conference hotels are located in the Bricktown area of downtown Oklahoma City. Bricktown is a historic district with a compelling namesake nestled in the heart of Oklahoma City, which offers a great variety of unique and exquisite restaurants, retailers and entertainment venues.

Now a vital part of the city, Bricktown is a much sought after destination for locals and tourists alike. The breathtaking canal lends itself to the picturesque look and feel of the district and the signature red brick architecture updated with modern day renovations keep the history and spirit alive, reminding us Bricktown is once again the hub of Oklahoma City. For more information on Bricktown, please visit <http://bricktownokc.com>.

Reservations can be made via one of the links listed below or by calling the phone number listed with each hotel. If calling, please be sure to ask for the NASC National Conference room rate. Keep in mind that once hotels are sold out of quad rooms (double-double), you will need to reserve single (king) rooms.

Conference room rates are guaranteed until Friday, May 18th or until the blocks are full. Room rates are available three days before and after the conference, pending hotel availability, for all three hotels.

2012 NASC Conference Hotel Information

Note: On May 18, 2012, any reservations that are in the hotel reservation system will be charged a non-refundable deposit of one night's room and tax. Any reservations made after May 18, 2012, will automatically be charged the non-refundable deposit. If you need to cancel any rooms please do so prior to May 18, 2012 to avoid these charges. Otherwise any rooms cancelled on or after May 18, 2011 are subject to the non-refundable deposit charge.

Conference Housing Policy

It is important that all NASC Conference attendees rely on the official conference hotel(s) when making reservations. These actions help everyone by keeping hotel costs and registration fees to a minimum. When attendees stay outside of the hotel block, the NASSP/NASC is likely to fall short of its room commitment negotiated with the hotel(s) and become liable for attrition (a financial penalty). Ultimately, such penalties result in higher fees and eventually these costs are directly passed on to attendees. Not relying on the formal conference block also impedes group negotiating power in securing favorable hotel rates and fees for all of our conference attendees.

Attendees who live more than 30 miles from the conference site (Oklahoma City) and choose not to stay in an official conference hotel, will be assessed a meeting room fee of $75.00 per registration in order to register for the meeting.

If the official conference hotel(s) are full, the conference adviser, or a State Director must contact NASSP to notify them of their hotel situation. At that point NASC will make every attempt to find an alternate hotel for the attendees who cannot be housed at the official hotel(s).

Charter Bus Parking Information

If your group will be utilizing a charter bus to and from the conference, you will need to contact one of the following companies regarding parking. None of the hotels listed above can accommodate charter bus parking.
