

MISSOURI ASSOCIATION OF STUDENT COUNCILS NORTHEAST DISTRICT

MASC Northeast District Officer List

President: This office is available to high schools only. Candidates running for President are interested in bringing the district meeting to their school. It must be scheduled on a day that you are not having classes in your building. You will be responsible for planning all aspects of the district meeting. You will work with the District Board Member to set an agenda, hire speakers, and organize the other details of the meeting.

Vice-President: This office is available to high schools only. It is the Vice-President school's responsibility to organize discussion groups for the high school students at the district meeting.

Second Vice-President: This office is open to junior high or middle schools only. Second Vice is responsible for organizing discussion groups or other activities to build leadership among the middle school students that attend the district meeting.

Secretary: This office is available to high schools only. It is the secretary school's responsibility to keep minutes at the annual district meeting and report those minutes at the next year's meeting. This school will also create some sort of gift for the advisors that attend the meeting. They will also organize and run elections during the district meeting.
